PROTECTORATE NOT WANTED.

General Fitzbugh Lee Talks of Existing Political Conditions on the Island and Its Probable Future.

Washington, Sopt. 21-Conemi Pitalianh Los, who has returned from Cara on a leave of absence, is at the Shoreham, Speaking of the Stuntion in Culta he said

"The Cubaca have held their local elections proliminary to the establishment of a government for the biland, and will next in convention November 5 to provide for the machinery of government. By the terms of the fourth clause of the resolution of intervention to secure the free-loss of Cubic Congress disclaimed any intention to exercise sovereignty over Culm, except for the pactionation of the island, stid promised to leave the government and control of the brinnd to fix people, when that should be accomplished. "Under this declaration steps have been taken looking to the establishment of a stable government by the people. In the exercise of framilies those was served in the army of the revolution against Spain are excepted from the restriction placed toon the voter that he must be possessed of $300 worth of property or be able to read and write. All who served in the revolu-tionary army are at liberty to vote without restriction. "The 'revolutionary party,' which has been largely successful in the recent elec-tions, desires humediate independence, without any sort of protecturate, control or supervision by the United States, and the immediate withdrawal of the American troops. The more conservative people, merchants and business men, many of whom are Spanish, and the Cubams of some wealth and substantial business interests, together with the foreignore of whom there are many, desire continuance of the ampervision of the United States.

BRIDE ELECT WAS TOO YOUNG. William Hall and Miss Roselle

Didn't Get a License. William L. Hall and Miss Lydia Roseile, both of No. 5507 Manchester avenue, applied ale yesterday afternoon to beputy License. But sere compeled to defer their wedding until Monday, because the bride is not quite it roars old, and she brought no letter from her father, approving the issuance of a license.

The prespective bridegroom and the bride elect took the matter philosophically and promised to return Monday. Miss Roselle was accompanied by her brother, a lad of about 19 years, and at first it was thought the had managed to leave house to marry under the pretext of taking the boy out for a walk. However, both Mr. Hall and Miss Roselle said there are no objections to the marriage, so far as they know, and they seemed to think there is no doubt but that they will be married with parontal consent early in the work.
